Sub: Request to allow NSS volunteers to participate in Mock Parliament
Competition at MIT, Pune on December 16, 2022

Respected Sir,

A Mock Parliament Competition is organized on December 16, 2022 at MIT, Pune. The event replicates the actual parliament session in progress and how the Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha sessions are conducted. It will be a great experience for our NSS volunteers to learn about our Constitutional System. Therefore I request you to allow the NSS volunteers to participate in the event. The approximate expenses incurred will be around 10,000/-.

We kindly request you to sanction the proposal and the required amount.

Thank you.

Yours Sincerely,

Dr. Rohit Gaikwad,
NSS Program Officer,
Sonopant Dandekar College

REPORT

The Mock Youth Parliament Competition, hosted at MIT College Pune, witnessed spirited participation from our college team representing Yuvak Biradari on December 16, 2022. Neha Prajapati's exceptional parliamentary skills earned her the prestigious title of Best Parliamentarian, adding to our pride. Additionally, our college team secured third place in the overall competition, showcasing their dedication and competence. A commendable total of 30 NSS students actively engaged in the competition, demonstrating their enthusiasm for parliamentary procedures and democratic discourse. Dr. Rohit Gaikwad and Prof. Archana Pawar provided invaluable mentorship to the students, guiding them through the intricacies of parliamentary debates and procedures. Their mentorship played a pivotal role in preparing our students for the competition, and their efforts are deeply appreciated. The Mock Youth Parliament Competition served as a platform for students to hone their leadership and debating skills while fostering a deeper understanding of democratic principles.
