Assisting in the improvement of the standard of living of girls in a residential

school

Date: 25 December 2022

On December 25, 2022, volunteer girls helped residential school girls with a Standard of living.

Objectives Of Activity:

1. To educate residential school girls about the concept of standard of living, including access to basic needs such as food, shelter, education, healthcare, and sanitation.

2. To provide guidance and support to residential school girls on how to improve their standard of living by making informed choices, managing resources effectively, and accessing available opportunities for personal and social development.

Outcome of Activity:

1. NSS girl's volunteers also gained insights while contributing in spreading awareness on improving the standard of living for girls in the residential school.

Brief Report:

On December 25, 2022, volunteer girls assisted residential school girls in understanding and improving their standard of living. The activity aimed to educate them about the components of the standard of living and how to access basic needs like food, shelter, education, healthcare, and sanitation. Additionally, it guided on making informed choices, managing resources effectively, and accessing opportunities for personal and social development. The outcome included potential positive effects on families, communities, and future generations, as well as improved health outcomes for the girls.

Dr. Rohit Gaikwad,NSS Program Officer,

Sonopant Dandekar College

GLIMPSES OF THE ACTIVITY
