Service Scheme Volunteers.

Date: 26th December 2022

On 26th December 2022, a lecture on the Importance of Journalism by Journalists

Pankaj Raut and Niraj Raut was organized by the NSS Unit of College for NSS volunteers & people of Lalthane village

The objective of the Activity

1. To enhance the understanding of the role, functions, and impact of media in society, including its role in disseminating information, shaping public opinion, and promoting democracy.

2. To raise awareness about the power and influence of media in shaping perceptions, attitudes, and behaviors, and to highlight the ethical responsibilities of journalists in reporting news accurately and impartially.

Outcome of the Activity

1. Attendees gain a deeper understanding of the role and significance of media in shaping society, including its influence on public opinion, democracy, and social change.

2. The insights shared by journalists inspire NSS volunteers to consider careers in media and journalism, recognizing the importance of ethical reporting and transparency in media practices.

Brief Report

On December 26, 2022, the NSS Unit of the College organized a lecture on the importance of media, featuring journalists Pankaj Raut and Niraj Raut, for NSS volunteers and residents of Lalthane village. The aim was to educate attendees about the role and impact of media in society, including its role in sharing information and shaping public opinion. The session also focused on the ethical responsibilities of journalists in reporting news accurately and impartially. As a result, attendees gained a deeper understanding of the media's influence on society and were inspired to consider careers in journalism, emphasizing the importance of ethical reporting practices.
